

Booking English Sinfonia

English Sinfonia's operational basis is as a chamber orchestra but it also performs in various sizes from septet to full orchestra depending on your choice of repertoire. In that way it is immensely flexible and stylistically versatile. ES offers excellence of service throughout the booking process, from your first call until we say goodbye after the concert. The General Manager will be your point of contact from day one, helping you to ensure that your event runs smoothly and successfully.

Fees for the English Sinfonia start at £3000.

Due to the infinite variety of options available and the unique nature of each concert, a more detailed quote will be provided after individual requirements have been discussed.
